California Supplemental Privacy Statement

Revised: January 2021

The following supplements the information contained in the Company's Privacy Policy and only applies to individuals who reside in California ("individuals" or "you"). The purpose of this notice is to provide individuals with a description of the Company's online and offline practices regarding the collection, use, disclosure and sale of personal information and their rights regarding their personal information. The terms used in this notice have the meanings given to them in the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 which may be broader than their common meaning.

Know and Delete your Personal Information

- In addition to the rights granted under our Privacy Policy, as a California resident, you have the right to know what personal information the Company has collected about you over the past 12 months and request the deletion of such personal information.
- The Company may have collected the following categories of personal information about you: first name, last name, email, phone and company name. You may request that the Company disclose to you the categories and specific pieces of personal information that the Company has collected about you over the past 12 months, the business or commercial purpose for collecting your personal information, the categories of personal information that the Company disclosed for a business purpose and the categories of third parties with whom the Company has shared your personal information. You may also request the deletion of such personal information.
- To take advantage of your disclosure and deletion rights, please submit your request via email to info@exelatech.com or by calling 1 844-XELATEC (1-844-935-2832).
- The Company will respond to a verifiable consumer request within forty-five (45) days of its receipt. If more time is required (up to 90 days), you will be informed of the reason and extension period in writing.

No Sale of Personal Information

- The Company does not and will not sell your personal information to third parties.

Non-Discrimination

- If you choose to exercise any of the above rights, the Company will not deny goods or services to you or provide different quality of services.
